

MISSION, VISION, VALUES STATEMENT
NEW HIGHLAND BAPTIST CHURCH

MISSION: KNOW GROW GO

KNOW CHRIST - “For I am determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified” (1 Corinthians 2:2)

GROW IN CHRIST - “Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.” (2 Peter 3:18)

GO IN HIS NAME - “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all Creation.” (Mark 16:15)

OUR MISSION IS TO KNOW CHRIST, GROW IN CHRIST AND GO IN HIS NAME

VISION: (Purpose)

To be a biblically functioning community of believers that accurately reflects Jesus Christ to our community and world and strives to accomplish His redemptive purposes through our time, talent and resources.

Our goal, in cooperation with other Christians, is to further God’s Kingdom in our midst, but also in obedience to His Great Commission and Great Commandment, to labor to extend His Kingdom world wide.

Together, to set and keep the church on a solid spiritual/biblical foundation and help the church to experience renewal and direction to fulfill God’s purpose for our church and community.

To seek and implement ideas/ministries that will interest and draw younger families toward the Lord and continue to remember the older generations in their ongoing ministry needs.

CORE VALUES

We are a family of individuals having different ideas with regard to how we go about serving Christ; however, certain common values unify our efforts and define our distinctives. We summarize our core values with the following statements:

1. We believe Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world and that there is salvation in no other one or way. (Jn. 14:6; Acts 4:12)
2. We believe the Bible is the Word of God, and is to be the sole basis for our belief and action in all areas of life. (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
3. We believe prayer is God's gift of free access to Himself and the channel through which we receive the grace, guidance, and power necessary to live the Christian life. (Matt.7:7-8; James 1:5-6; Acts 4:31)
4. We believe all persons matter to God, and therefore, matter to the church. (Lk.5:30-32; Lk.15)
5. We believe the world can best be reached for Christ in partnership with other Christians. (I Cor.3:6-9)
6. We believe the church is to present the authentic good news of Christianity to each generation in the most effective way. (I Cor.9:19-23)
7. We believe the church ministers most effectively when patterned after the New Testament Christian community, utilizing the spiritual gifts of men and women. (I Cor.12 & 14; Rom. 12; Eph.4)
8. We believe loving, respectful relationships should be the model for every aspect of church life. (Rom. 12:9-10; I Cor. 13; Jn. 13:34-35)
9. We believe excellence honors God and motivates people. (Prov. 27:17; Col.3:17,23-24)
10. We believe the pursuit of spiritual growth and full commitment to Jesus Christ and His cause should be the norm for every believer. (Phil.2:1-11; 2 Cor.8:7)

STATEMENT OF FAITH:

We declare the following statements as our key doctrinal statement of faith, but do not claim them to be the complete statement of our faith.

The Bible

The sole basis of our belief is the Bible, composed of the 66 books of the Old and New Testament. We believe that Scripture in its entirety originated with God and that it was given through the instrumentality of chosen men. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. It is the unique, full, and final authority on all matters of faith and practice, and there are no other writings similarly inspired by God.

God

We believe that there is one true, holy God, eternally existing in three persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - each of whom possess equally all the attributes of deity and the characteristics of personality. In the beginning God created out of nothing the world and all the things therein, thus manifesting the glory of His power, wisdom, and goodness. By His sovereign power, He continues to sustain His creation. By His providence, He is operating throughout history to fulfill His redemptive purposes.

Salvation

The central purpose of God's revelation in Scripture is to call all people into fellowship with Himself. Originally created to have fellowship with God, man defied God. Choosing to go his independent way, he was alienated from God and suffered the corruption of his nature, rendering him unable to please God. The fall took place at the beginning of human history, and all individuals since have suffered these consequences and are thus in need of the saving grace of God.

The salvation of mankind is wholly a work of God's free grace, not the result of human works or goodness, and must be personally appropriated by repentance and faith in Jesus Christ, as Savior and Lord. When God has begun a saving work in the heart of any person, He gives assurance in His Word that He will continue performing it until the day of its full consummation.

Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ is the eternal second Person of the Trinity who was united forever with a true human nature by a miraculous conception and virgin birth. He lived a life of perfect obedience to the Father and voluntarily atoned for the sins of all by dying on the cross as their substitute, thus satisfying divine justice and accomplishing salvation for all who trust in Him alone. He rose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He lived and died. He ascended into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of the Father, where He, the only mediator between God and man, continually makes intercession for His own. He shall come again to earth, personally and visibly, to consummate history and the eternal plan of God

The Holy Spirit

A genuine saving relationship with Jesus Christ is accompanied by a life of holiness and obedience, attained by believers as they submit to the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity. He was sent into the world by the Father and the Son to apply to mankind the saving work of Christ.

He enlightens the mind of sinners, awakens in them a recognition of their need of a Savior and regenerates them. At the point of salvation, He permanently indwells every believer to become the source of assurance, strength, and wisdom, and uniquely endows each believer with gifts for the up-building of the body.

The Holy Spirit guides believers in understanding and applying the Scripture. His power and control are appropriated by faith, making it possible for the believer to lead a life of Christlike character and to bear fruit to the glory of the Father.

Human Destiny

Death seals the eternal destiny of each person. For all mankind, there will be a resurrection of the body into the spiritual world and a judgement that will determine the fate of each individual. Unbelievers will be separated from God into condemnation. God's judgement will reveal His justice in consigning them to perpetuate in eternal retribution their own rejection of God. Believers will be received into eternal communion with God and will be rewarded for works done in this life.

The Church

In faith union with Jesus Christ, all believers become members of His body, the Church. There is one true universal Church, comprised of all who acknowledge Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. The Scripture commands believers to gather together to devote themselves to worship, prayer, the teaching of the Word, the observance of baptism, and communion, fellowship, service to the body through the development and use of talents and gifts, and outreach to the world.

Whenever God's people meet regularly in obedience to this command, there is the local expression of the church. Under the watch care of deacons and other supportive leadership, its members are to work together in love and unity, intent on the one ultimate purpose of glorifying God.

Faith and Practice

Scripture is the final authority in all matters of faith and practice. This church recognizes that it cannot bind the conscience of individual members in areas where Scripture is silent. Rather, each believer is to be lead in those areas by the Lord, to whom he or she alone is ultimately responsible. We believe the Statement of Faith to be an accurate summary of what Scripture teaches. All members shall refrain from advocating doctrines that are not included in the Statement of Faith in such a way as to cause dissension.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

New Highland Baptist Church is known as a safe place for seekers and believers alike to hear the "life-changing" message of Jesus Christ. However, proclaiming the gospel alone doesn't make us a church. What makes us a church is our sense of community. We have attenders and visitors, but we also have members. People can belong to our community, and know they're connected.

NOTE: For further information concerning our statement/s of faith, you may also refer to the 1963 Baptist Faith and Message which is available online.
